General By-Laws and Discipline Process

Association of New Brunswick Forest Professionals

March 2025

BY-LAW 1: DEFINITIONS

1.1 In these by-laws and in all other by-laws:

1.1.1.1 "Act" means "An Act to incorporate the Association of New Brunswick Forestry Professionals" being Chapter ?_____ of the Statutes of New Brunswick 202? _____ and as amended from time to time;

1.1.1.2 "Association" means the Association of New Brunswick Forestry Professionals;

1.1.1.3 "Chair" means the person elected or designated to chair a meeting of the Association, the Council, the Executive, or a properly constituted committee;

1.1.1.4 "Forest Technologist", means either forest technician or forest technologist.

1.1.1.5 "Province" means the Province of New Brunswick;

BY-LAW 2: NAME OF THE ASSOCIATION

Name of the Association

2.1 The name of the Association is The Association of New Brunswick Forestry Professionals. The Abbreviation "A.N.B.F.P." may be used informally.

BY-LAW 3: OBJECTS OF THE ASSOCIATION

Objects of the Association

3.1 The objects of the Association are:

3.1.1 To uphold the public interest respecting the practice of professional forestry by;

3.1.1.1 licensing any individual practicing any aspect of professional forestry in the province; and

3.1.1.2 ensuring the competence, independence, professional conduct, and integrity of its members, and

3.1.1.3 ensuring that each person engaged in the practice of professional forestry is accountable to the Association,

3.1.2 to establish, monitor and enforce standards of education and qualification for enrollment, registration, and continued membership in the Association,

3.1.3 to establish, monitor and enforce codes of ethics and standards for the practice of professional forestry for its members,

3.1.4 to govern its members in accordance with the New Brunswick Forestry Professionals Act, 202? and these by-laws,

3.1.5 to advocate for and uphold principles of stewardship of forests, forest lands, forest resources, and forest ecosystems,

3.1.6 to promote public awareness of the role of the Association and the work of Forestry professionals, and to communicate and cooperate with other professional organizations for the advancement of the best interests of the Association, and

3.1.7 to provide means whereby the Association may participate in the development of public policy with respect to changes in the field of forestry.

BY-LAW 4: HEAD OFFICE AND SEAL

Head office of the Association

4.1 The Head Office of the Association shall be in the City of Fredericton or at such other place within the province as may be approved by a resolution passed at a General Meeting of the Association.

4.2 The Register, the Seal, the Minute Books, and books of account together with the other documents and records of the Association shall be kept at the head office of the Association.

Seal of the Association

4.3 The corporate seal of the Association shall be of the form and design approved by council and shall be kept by the Registrar or such other officer as the Executive Committee may determine.

4.4 The Registrar shall affix the seal of the Association to a certificate signed by the President and by the Secretary-Treasurer, stating that a member is registered and in good standing. Otherwise, the seal of the Association shall not be affixed to any instrument except by the authority of a bylaw or by a rule of the Council or a resolution of the Association.

BY-LAW 5: COUNCIL

Formation of Council

5.1 Pursuant to Section 9 of the New Brunswick Forestry Professionals Act, 202?, Council shall be made up of:

- (a) a president, vice-president, immediate past-president, and secretary-treasurer, and
- (b) two members who are registered professional forest technologists, and
- (c) two members who are registered professional foresters, and
- (d) one public representative who shall be appointed by the Minister

5.2 Registered members, associate members, restricted license holders, and retired members in good standing shall elect new council members each year from the candidates nominated pursuant to this bylaw. For the purpose of this by-law, a year shall be defined as the time between one (1) annual general meeting (as hereinafter defined) and the next.

5.3 To serve, councillors must be Canadian citizens or permanent residents of Canada and other than the lay councillors, registered members or retired registered members in good standing.

5.4 Elected councillors, other than the Vice-president, President, and immediate Past-president, shall normally be elected for two (2) year terms but may be elected for one (1) year terms if necessary to ensure that whenever possible council consists of approximately equal numbers of first- and second-year councillors. Normally, the member elected to the position of Vice-president shall consecutively serve one (1) year in that office, and then shall serve one (1) year each in the offices of President and immediate Past-president.

5.5 however, there is nothing in these by-laws that shall preclude nomination directly to the president position.

Responsibilities of the President

5.6 The President of the Association shall:

5.6.1 Assume the office for one year, having served as Vice-President for the one (1) year immediately preceding the term as President;

5.6.2 Act as Chair at meetings of council, the Executive Committee, and the Association.

5.6.3 Upon completion of the term as President, hold office as immediate Past President and be a member of Council and the Executive Committee for an additional one (1) year, or until a successor is designated;

5.6.4 Be an ex officio member of all committees;

5.6.5 Sign all documents that require the signature of the President; and

5.6.6 Perform all duties incident to the office of the President and have such powers and duties as may from time to time be assigned to that office by Council.

5.7 If the Vice-president declines to assume the office of the President, or is unable to do so, the Council shall authorize that a ballot vote by the members be held to elect the President.

Responsibilities of the Vice-president 5.8

The Vice-president shall:

5.8.1 Be elected by a ballot vote of the members for a term of one (1) year;

5.8.2 Have all powers and responsibilities of the President during the absence, or inability to act of the President.

5.8.3 Upon completion of the term as Vice-President normally becomes the President.

Responsibilities of the Secretary-Treasurer 5.9

The Secretary-Treasurer shall:

5.9.1 Be elected by a ballot vote of the members for a term of two (2) years, and may hold office, if re-elected, for more than two (2) terms,

5.9.2 Sign all cheques, drafts, notes or orders of payment unless otherwise provided by rule of council;

5.9.3 Record minutes of all council meetings, Executive Committee meetings and General Meetings; and

5.9.4 Perform such other duties as the Executive Committee may appoint from time to time.

Responsibilities of the Executive Director 5.10

The Executive Director shall:

5.10.1 Conform to all lawful instruction given by the Executive Committee,

5.10.2 Give to council and the Executive Committee all information it may require regarding the affairs of the Association; and

5.10.3 Deposit funds and securities of the Association in its name in such Bank, Trust Company, or Credit Union as the Executive may direct.

Responsibilities of Councillors

5.11 Councillors shall:

5.11.1 Be elected by ballot vote of the members in accordance with procedures described in the by-laws,

5.11.2 Represent the membership of the Association on council; and

5.11.3 Have such other duties as may be determined by council.

Meetings of Council

5.12 The Council of the Association shall meet for dispatch of business, adjourn, and otherwise regulate its meetings, as it sees fit.

5.13 A quorum for meetings of the Council shall consist of not less than one-half of members of Council.

5.14 Notice of meetings of Council except the first following their election, shall specify the time and place of such meeting and shall be communicated to each member of Council not less than seven (7) days before the meeting is to take place.

5.15 Meetings of Council may be held at any time without notice, if all members of council are present and consent thereto, or if those absent signify their consent to such meeting. Meetings of Council may be held at Fredericton, virtually, or such other place in New Brunswick or elsewhere as may, from time to time, be determined by Council.

5.16 The President shall preside at all meetings of Council, but in the absence of the President the Vice-President shall preside.

5.17 Questions arising at any meeting of the Council shall be decided by a majority of votes. In case of equality of votes, the Chair shall have a deciding vote.

5.18 A resolution assented to and adopted in writing under the hands of all members of the Council, although not passed at a Council meeting, shall be of the same force and effect as if it had been duly passed at a Council meeting.

BY-LAW 6: EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

6.1 The Executive Committee of the Association shall be composed of the President, the immediate Past-president, the Vice-president, and the Secretary-Treasurer.

6.2 The Executive Committee of the Association may meet for the dispatch of urgent business, adjourn, and otherwise regulate its meetings, as it sees fit, when not practical to call a council meeting.

6.3 Notice of meetings of the Executive Committee except the first following their election, shall specify the time and place of such meeting and shall be communicated to each member of the Executive Committee not less than seven (7) days before the meeting is to take place.

6.4 Meetings of the Executive Committee may be held at any time without notice, if all members of the Executive Committee are present and consent thereto, or if those absent signify their consent to such meeting. Meetings of the Executive Committee may be held at Fredericton or such other place in New Brunswick or elsewhere as may, from time to time, be determined by the Executive Committee.

6.5 The President shall preside at all meetings of the Executive Committee, but in the absence of the President the Vice-President shall preside.

6.6 Questions arising at any meeting of the Executive Committee shall be decided by a majority of votes. In case of equality of votes, the Chair shall have a deciding vote.

6.7 A resolution assented to and adopted in writing under the hands of all members of the Executive Committee, although not passed at an Executive Committee meeting, shall be of the same force and effect as if it had been duly passed at an Executive Committee meeting.

6.8 Minutes of all association meetings, Council meetings, Executive Committee meetings and meetings of any other committee established by Council or Executive Committee, shall be signed by the Chair and the recording Secretary, and shall be forwarded to the Executive Director who will forward them to all members of the Council or Executive Committee as may be applicable.

BY-LAW 7: ASSOCIATION MEETINGS

7.1 Unless otherwise stated in these bylaws, the meeting rules contained in this bylaw shall apply to all meetings of the Association membership called under Section 8 of the New Brunswick Forestry Professionals Act, 202? or under these bylaws.

7.2 There are three (3) types of association meetings (hereinafter called “association meetings”) possible:

7.2.1 An annual general meeting, which must be held at least once in each calendar year in accordance with Section 8 of the New Brunswick Forestry Professionals Act, 202? (referred to as the “annual general meeting”);

7.2.2 A special general meeting which may be called by Council in accordance with Section 8 of the New Brunswick Forestry Professionals Act, 202?; or 7.2.3 A general meeting which can be called at the discretion of Council or on the written demand of ten percent (10%) or more members of the Association.

7.3 Council shall decide the date, time and location of association meetings.

7.4 Except as otherwise provided, the Executive Director shall give each voting member at least twenty (20) days’ notice of any association meeting stating the date, place, and time of such meeting. Notice shall be deemed valid if transmitted by electronic mail to each voting member at that member’s last known electronic mail address in the Association’s files.

7.5 The President shall chair all association meetings. If the President is unwilling or unable to act as chair or is not present within thirty (30) minutes of the scheduled starting time, the Vice-president shall chair the meeting. If both the President and Vice-president are unwilling or unable to act as chair or are not present within thirty (30) minutes of the scheduled starting time, the voting members present may choose the chair amongst themselves.

7.6 The Secretary-Treasurer shall record the minutes of an association meeting in the form and manner prescribed by Council from time-to-time. The minutes so taken shall be presented to the voting members for approval at the next association meeting. Once approved by resolution of the voting members, minutes of all association meetings shall be signed by the President and the Secretary-Treasurer.

7.7 If the Secretary-Treasurer is unwilling or unable to record the minutes, the chair shall appoint a person present at an association meeting to record the minutes in the form and manner prescribed by Council from time-to-time.

7.8 The quorum necessary to conduct business at an association meeting shall be twenty members from each membership category.

7.9 Each voting member is entitled to one (1) vote for each matter requiring a vote at an association meeting.

7.9.1 Votes by proxy may be accepted if a proxy agreement is signed by the absent member and presented at the meeting by the member who is named in the proxy agreement.

7.10 At the discretion of Council, meetings of the membership may be conducted in more than one location concurrently using web casting, video conferencing or teleconferencing facilities.

7.11 Unless otherwise specified in these by-laws, the conduct of all association meetings shall be guided by Robert's Rules of Order.

7.12 The agenda of all association meetings shall be prepared by Council mailed or transmitted by electronic means to all members of the association.

7.13 The business that must be conducted at the annual general meeting shall include, at a minimum:

7.13.1 Adoption of minutes of the previous annual general meeting;

7.13.2 Adoption by resolution of annual reports;

7.13.3 Adoption by resolution of the audited or reviewed financial statements;

7.13.4 Appointment by resolution of auditors or financial reviewers;

7.13.5 Appointment by resolution of one (1) or more returning officer and scrutineers for the purposes of Bylaw 8.9;

7.13.6 Reporting of council election results;

7.13.7 Ratification of resolutions of actions taken by council and staff on behalf of the Association in the preceding year; and

7.13.8 Any other business specified in the notice of meeting.

7.14 At any association meeting, a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided by a show of hands of voting members. If a show of hands is not conclusive, a ballot may be required by the Chair of the meeting or demanded by at least five (5) voting members before or on the result of a show of hands. Unless a ballot is so required or demanded, a declaration by the Chair that a resolution has by a show of hands been carried unanimously or by a particular majority, or lost, will be reflected in the Minutes of the meeting.

7.15 If a ballot is duly required or demanded at the meeting, it shall be taken in such manner as the Chair directs, and the results of the ballot shall be deemed to be the resolution of the issue for which the ballot was demanded.

BY-LAW 8: ELECTIONS

8.1 A nominating committee consisting of a Chair and two (2) members shall be appointed by Council not less than three months before the date set for the annual general meeting for the purpose of nominating candidates,

8.1.1 For the position of Vice-president.

8.1.2 For the position of Secretary-Treasurer; and

8.1.3 To fill vacancies for councillors whose term of office is ending.

8.2 Wherever possible, the nominating committee shall nominate at least one (1) more candidate than the number of vacancies available.

8.3 Additional nominations of candidates for election to Council may be made in writing by five (5) or more members of the Association in good standing, signed by them and addressed to the Executive Director of the Association, who shall present them to the Chair of the nominating committee. These nominations, accompanied by the written consent of the nominees, must reach the office of the Executive Director no later than thirty days prior to the election.

8.4 The names of the nominees, as well as additional nominations provided for in By-law 7.3, must be accompanied by the written consent of the nominees, and shall be in the hands of the Executive Director no later than thirty days prior to the election, for immediate circulation to the membership.

8.5 Following receipt of all nominations, the Executive Director shall prepare the necessary ballot papers and shall transmit a ballot paper to each voting member of the Association to that member's last known electronic address recorded in the office of the Association. In the event a candidate is acclaimed for any vacancy, notice of this fact shall be transmitted by the Executive Director either along with or in place of the ballot package.

8.5.1 The ballot will clearly indicate which candidates are running for election for Vicepresident, Secretary-Treasurer, or as councillors.

8.5.2 Voting members may vote for any of the candidates on the ballot.

8.6 The candidates elected to council are those candidates who receive the most votes for Vice-president, Secretary-Treasurer, and councillor.

8.7 A run-off ballot shall be required in the event of a tie not broken by a re-count or agreement amongst the affected candidates.

8.8 As soon as the results of the election are known, the returning officer will inform council, and the President shall then inform the candidates. The results shall also be reported to all members as soon as convenient and must be reported at the annual general meeting.

8.8.1 in case of an unfilled vacancy, a call for nomination can be made from the floor at an annual general meeting.

8.8.2 Should a position remain vacant, Council may appoint to any position on Council a registered member in good standing to fill any position that has not been filled by election due to lack of nominees.

8.9 The new Council shall take office at the conclusion of the AGM and shall hold office until the conclusion of the following year's AGM.

8.10 Council may appoint:

8.10.1 Any registered member in good standing to fill a vacancy caused by the incapacity, resignation or death of a council member to the position of President or Past president, Vice-president, Secretary-Treasurer, or councillor.

8.11 Council may, by vote of not less than two-thirds (2/3) of its members in attendance at a council meeting and in accordance with criteria established by council from time-to time, remove a council member for non-performance of their duties or failure to live up to their obligations as councillors.

8.11.1 Any council member against whom a vote of removal is proposed must be given at least five (5) business days' notice of the proposed vote and the reasons for proposed removal.

Balloting

8.12 Ballots may be initiated by resolutions passed at an association meeting, by resolution of council, or by operation of the New Brunswick Forestry Professionals Act, 202? or these by-laws.

8.13 Ballots are required for the following matters with the following proportion of votes necessary to carry the ballot;

8.13.1 Adoption, repeal or amendment of these bylaws requires approval of two-thirds (2/3) of the votes cast;

8.13.2 Election of Council members requires the highest number of votes cast consistent with Bylaw 7.6;

8.13.3 Setting of annual membership fees requires a simple majority;

8.13.4 All other matters for which a ballot has been requested shall require a simple majority to be carried.

8.14 A voters list will be established for each ballot as follows:

8.14.1 Council will establish a date of record being not more than two (2) weeks before the date set for sending out ballots to voting members; and

8.14.2 The voters list will contain the names of all voting members as of the date of record.

8.15 For these by-laws, voting members eligible to be included on the voters list are those registered members, associate members, Life Members, and Special license holders in good standing and not on a leave of absence as of the date of record.

8.16 Ballots shall be in such a form as council determines and shall be sent to each voting member on the voting list by electronic mail.

8.17 Council shall satisfy itself that the necessary control and security measures are in place to ensure that the integrity of the balloting process and the confidentiality of ballots cast is maintained.

8.18 To be counted, returned ballots must be in the hands of the Executive Director by the date and time set by the Executive Director. In no cases will the date and time for the return of ballots be less than thirty (30) days from the date they were originally mailed or transmitted.

8.19 Ballots shall be counted by a returning officer and two or more scrutineers appointed under By-law 6.13.5, and the Executive Director.

8.20 Council shall, by resolution, adopt policies and procedures not otherwise specified in these by-laws for the counting of ballots.

8.21 Any balloting systems used by the Association shall ensure that:

8.21.1 Only voting members on the voters list may cast a valid ballot;

8.21.2 The identity of the voter and their ballot remains secret;

8.21.3 No ballots can be accepted and counted after the date and time established as the deadline for receipt of ballots; and

8.21.4 Systems used to tabulate votes cast are accurate.

8.22 As soon as the result of a ballot is known, the returning officer will inform Council, which shall then communicate the result to the membership as soon as is possible.

BY-LAW 9: MEMBERSHIP

Categories of Membership

9.1 There are two categories of membership [1] under the New Brunswick Forest Professionals Act, 2022 as follows:

9.15.4 Is of good character and repute; and

9.15.5 Meets all other requirements set out in these bylaws and by resolution or policy of Council.

9.16 If Council is dissatisfied with the evidence submitted by an applicant for enrolment, Council may refuse enrolment until the applicant furnishes satisfactory evidence.

9.17 In-Training members must take such courses, pass such exams, and attain such work experience as may be required by Council before they shall be eligible for registration/certification.

9.18 Any enrolled member who does not conform to the requirements outlined in the New Brunswick Forestry Professionals Act, 202?, these bylaws, resolutions of Council, and the policies and procedures published by Council from time-to-time, shall be liable to have his/her application for enrolment rejected or his/her enrolment suspended or cancelled as the case may warrant.

Admission of In-Training Members to Registered Membership

9.19 An applicant admitted as an In-Training member shall become admitted as a Registered member if he or she satisfies the Board of Examiners that:

9.19.1 He or she has been employed in the practice of forestry for not less than two years and has maintained an up-to-date mentorship; and

9.19.2 He or she has a working knowledge of the laws of the Province of New Brunswick as they relate to the practice of forestry and an appreciation of the Code of Ethics of the Association.

Associate Members

9.20 Council may admit a Registered member to the associate membership category who:

9.20.1 Has held membership as a Registered member for at least two years; and

9.20.2 Is no longer a resident of the province but wishes to retain their membership in the ANBFP; or

9.20.3 Is no longer employed in the practice of professional forestry but wishes to retain voluntary membership in the ANBFP; or

9.20.4 Is on temporary leave of absence from the practice of professional forestry; or 9.20.5 Has not maintained or submitted the required CFE credits, or other competency requirements prescribed by the Association.

Life Members

9.23 There shall be two categories of Life Members, Forester Life Members and Forest Technologist Life Members.

Life Membership Category

9.24 Council may admit a registered member to the life membership category who:

9.24.1 Has been nominated by not less than five (5) registered members.

9.24.2 Applies, in writing, to be granted life membership; or 9.24.3 Is recommended by the Board of Examiners for life membership.

9.24.4 Satisfies Council that they are not engaged in the practice of professional forestry as defined in the New Brunswick Forestry Professionals Act, 202?, and they do not intend to return to practice in the future;

9.24.5 Signs a non-practice declaration;

9.24.6 Is sixty-five (65) years of age or older, or is not sixty-five (65) years of age or older, can demonstrate extenuating circumstances to the satisfaction of Council; and

9.24.7 Has been a member of the ANBFP, or ARPFNB, or NBFTA in good standing for a minimum of ten (10) continuous years unless the member can demonstrate extenuating circumstances to the satisfaction of Council.

9.24.8 Agrees to pay the required membership fees set out in the fee schedule published to the members.

Restricted License Holders

9.25 There shall be three (3) types of Restricted licenses:

9.25.1 Restricted licenses for Visiting Forestry Professionals.

9.25.2 Restricted licenses for Transferring Forestry Professionals; and

9.25.3 Restricted licenses for those people working within the definition of practice of professional forestry who do not meet the educational requirements to be registered members.

9.26 Council may grant a Restricted license to a Visiting Forestry Professional on such terms and conditions it deems appropriate, such terms and conditions to be clearly stated on any license so issued.

9.26.1 Restricted licenses for Visiting Forestry Professionals shall be limited to the time required to undertake a specific task or project and shall normally not exceed a term of twelve (12) months.

9.26.2 If a Visiting Forestry Professional granted a Restricted license applies to extend the term of his/her license, council may grant such application; otherwise, each application shall be considered a new and separate application.

9.26.3 Unless special circumstances acceptable to the council can be demonstrated, a Restricted license for a Visiting Forestry Professional may only be renewed once.

9.27 Council may grant a Restricted license to a Transferring Forestry Professional on such terms and conditions it approves, such terms and conditions to be clearly stated on any license so issued.

9.27.1 Restricted licenses for Transferring Forestry Professionals may grant rights of title and either full or partial rights of practice to those persons who have obtained the status of Registered Professional Forester (RPF) or Registered Professional Forest Technologist (RPFT) in another recognized Canadian jurisdiction.

9.27.2 Council may impose terms and conditions on a Transferring Forest Professional's practice until such time as he/she passes the registration examination. Any terms and conditions imposed under the authority of this bylaw will be consistent with commitments made by, or agreements entered by the association from time-to-time, pertaining to interprovincial labour mobility.

9.28 Council may grant a Restricted license to a person who, at the time of passage of this Act, holds employment that requires him or her to practice within the definition of the practice of professional forestry, but who does not hold the educational qualifications to allow him or her to be admitted to the Association as a Registered member, where Council is satisfied that the applicant:

9.28.1 Is of good character and repute;

9.28.2 Has a science degree in a discipline and from a university program approved by council; a diploma from a college program or other academic qualification approved by council; or

9.28.3 Has other qualifications acceptable to council; and

9.28.4 Has five (5) years of experience in forestry work acceptable to council. At least two (2) years of experience must have been gained from working within the area of the practice of professional forestry to which the limited practice permit is to apply, and

9.28.5 Has presented two (2) references acceptable to council from Registered members; and

9.28.6 Has successfully completed the Restricted license application process and examination process adopted by council from time-to-time and has been recommended for acceptance as a Restricted license holder by the Board of Examiners; and

9.28.7 Has paid the fees prescribed by council; and has met all other requirements, policies and procedures pertaining to Restricted licenses adopted by council from time-to-time.

9.29 Restricted licenses shall only be valid for the term of years specified in the license but may be renewed at the discretion of, and on such other terms and conditions deemed appropriate by, council;

9.29.1 Upon application by the Restricted license holder; and

9.29.2 Approval of that application by council on such further terms and conditions as it deems appropriate.

9.30 Council will issue Restricted licenses that will explicitly delineate the scope of practice of the license holder.

9.31 The names of each Restricted license holder along with details describing the terms and scope of his/her license, shall be maintained by the Registrar on a separate Roll designated for such license holders.

9.32 Persons who do not have the educational qualifications to allow him or her to be admitted to the Association as a Registered member and who hold employment within the definition of the practice of professional forestry must apply for a Restricted license within two years of passage of this Act to be eligible to continue working within the definition of the practice of professional forestry in the province of New Brunswick.

9.33 Holders of Restricted licenses may not use the restricted titles “RPF” or “RPFT”.

9.34 Holders of Restricted licenses are permitted to use the title of “Affiliated Forestry Practitioner” and/or the abbreviation “AFP”.

9.35 Any applicant for a Restricted license or holder of a Restricted license who does not conform to the requirements outlined in the New Brunswick Forestry Professionals Act, 202?, these by-laws, rules of council, and the policies and procedures published by council from time-to-time shall be liable to have his/her application rejected or license suspended or cancelled as the case may warrant.

BYLAW 10: MEMBERSHIP RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

Code of Ethics

10.1 A Code of Ethics to govern the conduct of members in the practice of forestry shall be established by the Council. Changes in the Code of Ethics shall be made in accordance with the procedure laid down for changes in the by-laws.

10.2 All members and licensees are required to abide by the Code of Ethics in all activities related to the practice of forestry.

Membership Certificates

10.3 Every registered member shall be issued a certificate of registration and an unrestricted license to practice professional forestry in the province as approved by the Council over the seal of the Association and the signatures of the President and Secretary-Treasurer. This certificate and license shall be automatically renewed annually based on continued qualifications and the payment of the required fees. Such a certificate of registration over the seal of the Association is prima facie evidence of registration.

Registered Members

10.4 Registered members shall:

10.4.1 Only Registered Professional Foresters shall be entitled to use the titles “Registered Professional Forester”, or “Professional Forester”, or “Forester”, and the designations “RPF”, “R.P.F.” or any other title or designation which would lead a member of the public to believe that he/she is entitled to engage in the practice of professional forestry.

10.4.2 Only Registered Professional Forest Technologists shall be entitled to use the titles “Registered Professional Forest Technologist”, and the designations “RPFT” or any other title or designation which would lead a member of the public to believe that he/she is entitled to engage in the practice of professional forestry.

10.4.3 Be issued an unrestricted license to practice professional forestry in the province that will be auto-renewed annually provided the member remains in good standing with the Association.

10.4.4 Enjoy full voting and participation rights in the affairs of the Association;

10.4.5 Be subject to the quality assurance programs and continuing competency requirements that may be adopted by Council from time-to-time; and

10.4.6 Be subject to the complaint resolution processes described in these bylaws; and

10.4.7 Be eligible to apply for leaves of absence in accordance with the guidelines prescribed by Council from time-to-time.

Member’s Seal

10.5 Every registered member may have and use a seal as per Section 21(2) of the New Brunswick Forestry Professionals Act, 202?

10.5.1 Members' seals shall be of the form and design approved by Council and shall contain the name and the registration number of the member, and the words "Registered Professional Forester, Province of New Brunswick" or “Registered Professional Forest Technologist, Province of New Brunswick”

10.5.2 Members' seals shall be ordered and purchased through the Executive Director.
