

New Brunswick Forestry Hall of Fame Rules and Regulations

The New Brunswick Forestry Hall of Fame was established in 1983 by the ARPFNB. The Hall of Fame is located in the Woodmen's Museum in Boiestown, New Brunswick.

The Objectives of the Institution are:

1. To recognize and honor the achievements of individuals who have attained prominence and distinction in any field of forestry, and those who have made a major contribution to the development and advancement of forestry in New Brunswick.
2. To permanently record and give public prominence to the achievements of such individuals in a public display centre. Persons who by outstanding achievement have attained prominence in any field of forestry or who have made a major contribution to the development and advancement of forestry in New Brunswick are eligible for election to the New Brunswick Forestry Hall of Fame.

Nominations:

RPF's or any member of the public can place nominations for this achievement award. However, three or more ARPFNB members must sign the nomination. Nominations must be received by the Executive Director of the ARPFNB by December 31.

Recognition:

The Award, consisting of a plaque, will be presented at AGM in February of each year.

Promotion/Awareness:

This award provides an opportunity to raise awareness of RPF's and our roles and responsibilities in managing NB's Forests. The award winner will have their photo and description of their achievements distributed through major newspapers in NB. A suitable permanent location will also be established to display award winners.

Selection Committee:

The 5 person Selection Committee will include the Past President of the ARPFNB, 1 Life Member, 2 Regular members, and 1 non-RPF to be selected by the RPF Executive. The Executive Director will act as Secretary for the Committee in a non-voting capacity.

Evaluation Criteria:

A Nominee for the Award must possess the following characteristics:

- RPF in good standing
- demonstrate adherence to the code of ethics of the ARPFNB
- demonstrate initiative in progressing the science/management of NB's forests

- recognized by her/his peers as a leader in forestry
- demonstrated commitment to continuing education
- promoted awareness and action towards sustainable forest management practice

Individuals who are nominated will have their name stand for 3 years and be assessed by the Selection Committee accordingly. The Award cannot be presented to same person within a five-year period.
